2. INTRODUCTION

The Protection of Personal Information Act No. 4 of 2013 ("POPIA") was assented to on the 26th of November 2013. The purpose of POPIA is to give effect to section 14 of The Constitution, the "right to Privacy", by protecting Personal Information and regulating the free flow and processing of Personal Information. The South African National Space Agency ("SANSA") is committed to promoting the Constitutional rights of all to both, access to information on the one hand and the protection of Personal Information on the other.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 ("PAIA") gives effect to the provisions of section 32 of The Constitution which provides for the "right of access to information" held by the State and by another person that is required for the exercise and/or protection of any right.

The PAIA and POPIA Manual ("Manual") is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within SANSA, its employees and its stakeholders, customers / clients and third parties; to promote a culture of effective access to information and to enable all stakeholders to fully exercise and protect all their rights.

Both PAIA and POPIA recognise that the rights of access to information and privacy respectively are subject to the limitations clause in terms of section 36 of The Constitution where such limitation is reasonable and justifiable in terms of the law of general application in an open and democratic society based on human dignity, equality and freedom.

The purpose of this Manual is to set out inter alia the procedures to be followed and criteria that have to be met for anyone (the "requester") to request access to records in the possession or under the control of the SANSA.

7. THE REQUESTS PROCEDURES- Section 14 (1)(d)

Disclosure of records must be given access to a record of a public body if the requester complies with the following:

7.1.1 The requester complies with all the procedural requirements in the Act relating to the request for access to that record; and

7.1.2 Access to that record is not refused on any ground of refusal provided for in the Act.

Nature of the request

7.1.3 A requester must use the prescribed form, Form A, published in Government Notice R187 of 15 February 2002. Prescribed Form A will have to be filled in by the requester when requesting for information. Prescribed Form A is attached to this PAIA Manual as Annexure A.

7.1.4 The requester must identify the right that he or she is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

- 7.1.5 All requests to SANSA will be evaluated and considered in accordance with the Act. Publication of this PAIA Manual and providing a description of the categories and subject matter of information held by SANSA does not give rise to any right (in contract or otherwise) to access such information or record except in terms of the Act.
- 7.1.6 The requester must indicate whether the request is to obtain a copy of the record or whether inspection of the record at the offices of the public body is requested. Alternatively, if the record is not a document, it can be viewed in the requested form – section 29(2).
- 7.1.7 Access should be provided in the particular form and manner requested unless such manner would interfere unreasonably with the running of the public body concerned or damages the record, or infringes a copyright owned by the state. If for practical reasons access cannot be given in the required form, but in an alternative manner, the fee must be calculated in accordance with the manner of disclosure first requested by the requester – section 29(3) and (4).
- 7.1.8 If, in addition to a written reply to the request for the record, the requester requires to be advised of the decision in any other manner, eg. by telephone, this must be indicated – section 18(2)(e).
- 7.1.9 If a requester requests the information on behalf of somebody else, the capacity in which the request is made must be indicated – section 18(2)(f).
- 7.1.10 If the requester is unable to read or write, or has a disability, the request may be made orally. In such event, the Information Officer must complete the form on behalf of the requester and provide the requester with a copy – section 18(3).
- 7.1.11 In terms section 26 of Act, the Information Officer/Deputy Information Officer may extend the period of 30 (thirty) days referred to in section 25(1) (in the section referred to as the 'original period' of request) once for a further period of not more than 30 days, if -
- (a) the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of the public body concerned
 - (b) the request requires a search for records in, or collection thereof from, an office of the public body not situated in the same town or city as the office of the information officer that cannot reasonably be completed within the original period
 - (c) consultation among divisions of the public body or with another public body is necessary or desirable to decide upon the request that cannot reasonably be completed within the original period
 - (d) more than one of the circumstances contemplated in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) exist in respect of the request making compliance with the original period not reasonably possible, or
 - (e) the requester consents in writing to such extension.

7.1.12 In the event the Information Officer/Deputy Information Officer fails to give the decision on a request for access to the requester concerned within the period contemplated in section 25(1), the Information Officer/Deputy Information Officer shall, for the purposes of the Act, be regarded as having refused the request.

Fees payable

7.1.13. There are two types of fees required to be paid in terms of the Act, being the request fee and the access fee – section 22 (PAIA).

7.1.14. A requester who seeks access to a record containing Personal Information about the requester is not required to pay the request fee. Every other requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the prescribed request fee.

7.1.15 The Information Officer must notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request.

7.1.16 The request fee payable to public bodies is R35. The requester may lodge an internal appeal, where appropriate, or an application to court against the tender or payment of the request fee.

7.1.17 After the Information Officer has decided on the request; the requester must be notified of such decision in the manner requested by the requester.

7.1.18 If the request is granted, an access fee must be paid for the search, preparation, reproduction and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

7.1.19 The request fees and access fees payable by a requester referred to section 22, unless exempted under section 22(8), of PAIA are listed in Annexure B of this Manual.

8. SERVICES AVAILABLE – Section 14(1)(f)

In terms of the South African National Space Agency Act, Act No. 36 of 2008, SANSA, may, in order to perform any of its functions and to achieve its objects, embark on the following:

8.1.1 Enter into an agreement with any person, government or administration on the terms and conditions agreed upon by SANSA and that person, government or administration.

8.1.2 For the purposes of developing or exploiting any invention or technological space expertise, establish a company, or in collaboration with any other person establish such a company and acquire an interest in any company or other juristic person undertaking the development or exploitation of an invention or technological space innovation.

8.1.3 Establish any programme in line with national space policy in respect of enabling technologies that will provide leadership in coordinating and supporting applied research, coordination and support to the development of space science missions, space mission applications and space mission operations.

8.1.4 Support programmes or projects relating to scientific space research.

9. THE REMEDIES AVAILABLE IF THE PROVISIONS OF THE ACT ARE NOT COMPLIED WITH - Section 14 (1)(h)

The SANSA does not have an internal appeal procedure in place to facilitate appeals against decisions of the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer. An aggrieved party may by way of application apply to the Court for appropriate relief. On hearing such application, the Court may grant any order that is just and equitable including:

- 1.1.3 Confirming, amending or setting aside the decision that is the subject of the application
- 1.1.4 Requiring the Information Officer to take some action or to refrain from taking such action as the Court considers necessary within the period mentioned in the order
- 1.1.5 Granting an interdict, interim or specific relief, a declaratory order or compensation; or
- 1.1.6 Costs.

10. ANY OTHER INFORMATION AS MAY BE PRESCRIBED -Section 14(1)(i)

There is currently no additional information available from the Minister.

11.PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION THAT IS PROCESSED BY SANSA

11.1 Conditions for Lawful Processing

Chapter 3 of POPIA provides for the minimum Conditions for Lawful Processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA. Below is a description of the eight Conditions for Lawful Processing as contained in POPIA:

- a) Accountability - the Responsible Party has an obligation to ensure that there is compliance with POPIA in respect of the Processing of Personal Information.
- b) Processing limitation - Personal Information must be collected directly from a Data Subject to the extent applicable; must only be processed with the consent of the Data Subject and must only be used for the purposes for which it was obtained.
- c) Purpose specification - Personal Information must only be processed for the specific purpose for which it was obtained and must not be retained for any longer than it is needed to achieve such purpose.
- d) Further processing limitation - further processing of Personal Information must be compatible with the initial purpose for which the information was collected.
- e) Information quality - the Responsible Party must ensure that Personal Information held is accurate and updated regularly and that the integrity of the information is maintained by appropriate security measures.
- f) Openness - there must be transparency between the Data Subject and the Responsible Party.
- g) Security safeguards - a Responsible Party must take reasonable steps to ensure that adequate safeguards are in place to ensure that Personal Information is being processed responsibly and is not unlawfully accessed.
- h) Data Subject participation - the Data Subject must be made aware that their information is being processed and must have provided their informed consent to such processing.

Purpose of the Processing of Personal Information by SANSA

As outlined in paragraph 12(1)(c), Personal Information may only be Processed for a specific purpose. The purposes for which SANSA Processes or will Process Personal Information, is set out below:
